

The Timothean Religion, October 21, 2020.

Science says There are no absolutes. Nothing is really known. Jesus said truth is from above and Pilate asked Jesus, then there is no truth on earth? Truth is that which does not change. Like the color red is always red. However, some people are color blind. So red is not red to them. The Timothean religion is a truth seeker religion. Where as all the other religions, claim they all ready know the truth. Everything is always according to somebody, some university or some study. According to Columbus the earth is round. According to the flat earth society, the earth is flat. Everyone who flies around the earth on an airplane or sails on a ship around the earth, does so, because they believe Columbus. The flat Earth people don't believe Columbus, they don't fly around the earth, they don't sail around the earth. Because they believe they will fall off the edge of the flat Earth.

According to 60 Minutes, An airplane arrived from France and was intercepted at the airport by the CDC. The CDC boarded the plane in full PPE biological hazards suits. Because it was known that three people on the plane had the coronavirus. The CDC quarantined the three people and a few people that were sick. Then they let the rest of the people go. The virus spread throughout the United States. Then there was a news report, where the airliner said they did a six-month study and there was no evidence that anybody could get the virus from flying on an airplane. Basically the CDC had just proved that all these people got the virus from flying on the airplane with three sick people. So it's all about who are you going to believe. The CDC or the study funded by the airliner.

The Bible talks about the church that kills all of God's prophets. So we know there's an evil church that kills God's prophets and accepts the words of the false prophets. Islam, Judaism, Hinduism, Jehovah witnesses, the Catholics, the Mormons, the Protestants and Christianity in general, basically point their fingers at each other as being evil. Most Christians will call the Pope the devil. So which church is the true church? Which religion is right and which is wrong? Everyone who is raised in their religion, believes that they are right and everyone else is wrong. They won't even read the other person's book, because they believe the other religions book is of the devil. I've read parts of all these books. I basically skim through them. I am a truth seeker. I studied with the Baptists, the Jehovah witnesses and the Mormons. I've read the book of Mormon, the Hindu Bhagavad-Gita, Dead Sea Scrolls, the Nag Hammadi Library, etc. I want to read both sides of the story before I make a decision on what is truth. It's easy to only read one side of the story and accept that side as truth. There is no judge or jury that says tell us one side of the story, so it's easier for us to make a decision. Did Jesus die on the cross? According to Christianity he did. But according to Islam, a substitute was killed to make it look like they killed God. According to Judaism, Jesus wasn't nobody anyway. Hinduism doesn't even know who Jesus is. It's very clear in the book of Mormon that Jesus is God himself. The Jehovah witnesses told me that the government would not let me start a new religion. They were basically right. More than 30 years later, I still have no members in my new religion. I only have government spies trying to overthrow my religion. So much for the Constitution of the United States. The government pump poison gas into my house, the FBI trying to discredit me by trying to make me appear insane, the entire medical system is designed to discredit any prophet or man of God. They don't even like chiropractors. The wars that the Catholic Church has waged for 2000 years has basically been to kill any people who believe in God. The catheters was a religion that knew God could become visible. So the Catholics had to kill them all. If God can become visible, then the Pope can't be Pope. The Catholics tried to make me a saint, but the Bible said all the Catholic saints are dead. So I don't want to be a saint in the Catholic Church. How did it all start?

After my mother died in 1978 and my niece drowned in a swimming pool, I went searching for God. I wanted to see God. I believe God had power to become visible. I wasn't searching for Jesus, I was looking for God. After seven years of searching, I saw God in California in 1985. Then I started searching for others who saw God. I didn't find one other person, even on the Internet, that saw God. Some people claim to have seen Jesus. But they don't believe he is God. When all these religions told me nobody could see God, then I decided to start my own religion based on the fact that God has power to become visible and that anybody can see God. I didn't think I was special. I had a desire to see God and I asked to see God.

Then I started to wonder why others never saw God or couldn't see God. That's when I found verses in the Bible that says God does not appear to the faithless. It's actually the opposite of what Christianity preaches. If you had faith, you would see God. Faith comes by hearing the testimony of the witnesses who have seen God. If somebody told you there was gold in California you may not believe them. If 100 people told you there was gold in California, then you might start to believe there's gold in California. If you met 1000 people who saw God, you might start to wonder why you haven't seen God and you might even start to read the Bible to find out why.

According to the Bible, God does not appear to the foolish. According to the Bible, God does not appear to sinners. So it's starting to look like the atheist, the Christians, the Jews, the Muslims and the Hindus are not likely to see God. They seem to be foolish, they seem to be faithless and some of them even believe God died to pay for their sins, so that they don't have to. When I saw Jesus in California in 1985, he made it very clear, you had to follow the 10 Commandments.

Because there are no absolutes, I don't want to put any beliefs in stone. Although I believe God is absolute. But he's not from this world. Because Jesus is God, I don't believe he died on a cross. Now if Jesus appears and says he died on a cross, or speaks to me and says he died, then I will believe him. But I'm not going to believe the people, who killed the prophets and never saw God. Because Jesus is the seed of God, I don't believe he can be the seed of Joseph. Therefore because Jesus is God, he cannot be the seed of Joseph Messiah. Messiah means anointed by God. Messiah doesn't mean God. Even Jesus said in the Gospels, if David called him Lord, how can the Lord be the seed of David? And the Jews and Christians could not answer that question. Because they wanted to believe that the Lord, was the seed of David, the Messiah. The Messiah was to come in the later days, not 2000 years ago. The Jews don't believe Jesus is the Messiah, because they don't believe the Messiah comes twice, because he failed the first time.

Because guns have only been used to kill people and protect those who kill babies by abortion, the Timothean religion doesn't believe in guns. This belief is not set in stone. When guns are used to kill those who kill babies, then I will believe guns are used to save lives. I believe in truth. And the truth is, there is 140 million gun owners, that claim guns are used to save lives. And they did nothing, as 60 million babies were murdered by abortion. When good men do nothing evil flourishes. These men with guns did nothing while 60 million babies were being murdered. Also they started wars, because Saddam Hussein killed five babies in incubators. Because they were not able to survive outside the incubator on their own. The same argument that these religious leaders use to justify abortion. Because these babies cannot live outside the womb on their own. That was justification for gun owners to kill 2 million women and children in Iraq.

You guessed it, the Timothean religion doesn't believe in abortion. Furthermore, we believe those who support abortion are criminally insane baby killers. They use criminally insane rationalization to justify a fetus as a nonhuman. Just like Hitler did for the Jews and the elite did for the Blacks. When they're not human, you can gas them in gas chambers, enslave them or even abort them. There's actually no reason why in God's government, these unwanted babies, could not be raised as soldiers for Christ in God's kingdom by God's government.

So the only thing that is dogma today in the Timothean religion, is we don't believe in guns. We don't believe in abortion. We believe Jesus set us free. We believe you have to see God, to know God. You have to see Jesus, to know Jesus. God the father may be a spirit, but Jesus the son, is not a spirit. Jesus said all those who have heard of the spirit father, come to the visible incarnate son. When Jesus said to seek him or come to him, he didn't mean go to a Christian church and worship a painting on the wall or a stone statue of Jesus. In fact the 10 Commandments says not to make any images of anything in heaven above or on earth below. The mere fact that they make a statue or painting of Jesus, proves they are the false church.

We believe this is God's kingdom on earth. According to the book of Revelation, God himself will come to earth and rule on earth as King. This will not be the Messiah. This will not be George Bush, Donald Trump or the Pope representing Jesus. We believe in the words of God in the Bible and the Bible says that God's land cannot be sold. As long as people are buying or selling or owning land, they are not living in God's kingdom. This is another reason why I don't believe in guns. Guns of only been used to steal God's land. Not to protect God's land from thieves who divide it up for gain.

Jesus said to read the words in red in the red letter addition of the Bible. The words in black are not God's words. They are the words of Paul, Moses, true and false prophets. We believe all these other religions are false and cannot be saved. Christians, Catholics, Baptists, Protestants, Jehovah witnesses, Mormons, atheist, Jews, Hindus, any other religion you can think of has died from the coronavirus and will continue to do so. They would rather die than seek the truth. Jesus said those who believe in him never die. So it's pretty obviously none of these people believe in the true Jesus.

To join the Timothean religion, write to the PO Box on my website. I will be periodically sending out newsletters by mail. Either email or postal mail. There are spies in all these religions and they have hacked my email address. I don't trust email to receive people's names and addresses. If it's not important information, I don't mind sending it by email.
